Course Objective: This course will focus on the preparation of information to assist management with planning, control, and decision-making. Improving team-based, written, and oral communication skills are a primary emphasis of this course. Students should, at the completion of the course, have an understanding of managerial accounting concepts and their relevance to decision-making and strategy, and should have developed skills in communicating managerial accounting information to decision-makers in both written and oral formats.

Policies:

1. Exams -- There is no reason for missing an exam or other assignment in this class. You have until the end of the term to complete the work. Poor Internet connections or technology issues will never be an excuse for failing to do work in an online class. Assume that some technology issues will occur, and do not wait until the last minute to complete the work. No student can miss the final exam. It is proctored; no notes or books are allowed, and you must bring a four-function calculator.
2. Quizzes and Homework – Homework and quizzes are assigned and completed on Connect Accounting. Once completed the answers are available on Connect. You cannot pass this course without making a serious attempt at the problems.
3. Americans with Disabilities Act - The Department of Accounting, in cooperation with the Office of Disability Accommodation, complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities.

If you have an established disability as defined in the Americans with Disabilities Act and would like to request accommodation, please present your written accommodation request by the end of the second week of classes. My office hours and office number are shown on this syllabus.

4. Academic Dishonesty - The UNT code of Student Conduct and Discipline provide penalties for misconduct by students, including academic dishonesty.

Academic dishonesty includes cheating and plagiarism.

The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to, (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests or examinations; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; or (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty member or staff of the university.

The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. (Source: Code of Conduct and Discipline at the University of North Texas.)

Penalties: If you engage in academic dishonesty related to this class, you will receive a failing grade on the test or assignment, and a failing grade in the course. In addition, the case will be referred to the Dean of Students for appropriate disciplinary action. A new academic integrity policy is in effect. A link to the policy is: <http://vpaa.unt.edu/academic-integrity.htm>

5. Drop and Retake Policy - The last day to drop this course with an automatic W and no consent is listed on the UNT web site, as is the last day to drop with consent. Per accounting department policy, any student dropping (or withdrawing from the university) after a certain date specified by the department will receive a WF unless they are earning a grade of D or better in the class. While I do not anticipate students needing to drop the class, it is your responsibility to keep up with these dates and contact me if you need to drop the class. Accounting department policy allows only one retake of any course in which the student has earned a prior grade, including WF (but not W).
6. End-of-Class Student Evaluations -- The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a means of student evaluation for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. The SETE is open through the week of finals.
