The Center for Energy Accounting and Sustainability (CEAS) at the University of North Texas presents

Energy Evolution: New Frontiers in Oil & Gas Conference 2025.

Building on the success of last year's inaugural event, this conference attracts C-level executives, energy industry leaders, public accounting professionals, and consultants from across the U.S. Senior executives and industry experts will explore the financial, economic, and policy challenges shaping the future of oil and gas. CEAS is committed to fostering meaningful discussions and strategic insights, making this a premier industry gathering. Join us!

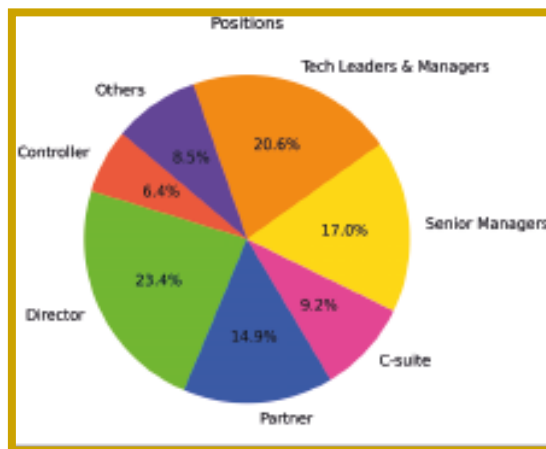

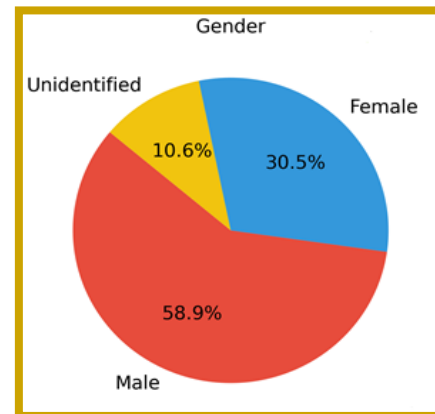

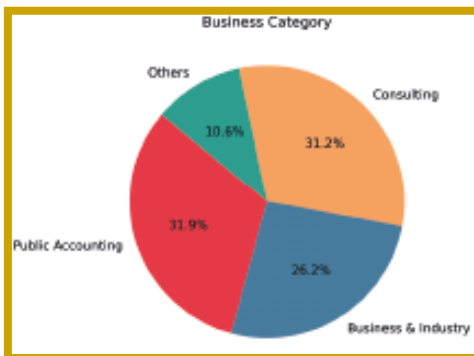

This year's event will be held

November 5 – 6, 2025
at the Renaissance Denver
Downtown City Center Hotel.

Set in the historic Colorado National Bank building, the venue features stunning early 20th-century architecture, including iconic murals by Allen Tupper True, and a grand lobby hailed as "the most beautiful room in Denver."
