UNT | G. BRINT RYAN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
Supply Chain Management

monthly digest

STUDENTS REPORT 90% TIME VALUE

Students reported a 90% Time ratio, demonstrating the strong value they place on the knowledge, skills, and career preparation gained in their courses.

ACE CAMP INSPIRES THE NEXT GENERATION

Thirty high school students explored aviation and supply chain careers through discovery flights, helicopters, drones, simulations, tours, and hands-on activities.

CELEBRATING STAFF SUCCESS: RUBEN GARCIA

Congratulations to Ruben Garcia, SCM Administrative Coordinator, who earned his master's degree while working full time. A tremendous example of perseverance and professional growth.

INDUSTRIAL DISTRIBUTION EXPANDS PATHWAYS

UNT's Industrial Distribution degree combines business, technology, manufacturing, leadership, and supply chain to prepare students for careers in technology-driven industries.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT DAY COMING THIS FALL

On September 15, students will participate in mock interviews and the Mean Green Shoe Game to strengthen teamwork, communication, decision-making, and career readiness.

SCHOLARSHIP BREAKFAST GAINS MOMENTUM

The Annual Awards & Scholarship Breakfast returns August 12 with an Autonomous Trucking panel, with 100% of table sales and donations supporting student scholarships.

www.

@UNTSCM

SPOTLIGHT: STEVE JOINER

Steve Joiner a long-serving Principal Lecturer in the Department the brings a blend of aviation industry leadership, jet-engine program expertise, and university-level teaching to UNT's aviation logistics program. His career reflects deep operational experience, strong ties to the aviation sector, and sustained commitment to student development through teaching, internships, and professional organizations.