October is Cyber Security Awareness Month! Want to become Cyber Smart? Here is your chance.

Email: ITDS.CyberOctober@unt.edu

Friday, October 7 @ 12:00 - 1:30 PM | Room: BLB-170

Practices of Staying Safe in Cyberspace
Steve Krantz, PhD, is the Author of “CyberGuardian: A SecureTheVillage Guide for Residents”

Common Threats in the Business World
Felicity Helt, Vice President, Cyber Threat Analysis, Goldman Sachs & Co | Technology Risk | Threat Management Center

Business Resiliency- A fundamental purpose of information security
Jason Fruge, VP, CISO, Rent-a-Center

How to become a Cyber Messenger.
Dipak P Pravin, PhD Clinical Assistant Professor with the Department of Information Technology and Decision Sciences, G. Brint Ryan College of Business, at the University of North Texas

Friday, October 14 @ 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM | Room: BLB-170

Principles of Cybersecurity for business
Stan Stahl, PhD, President, SecureTheVillage.org; Director Information Security, Miller Kaplan

Ethics of Social Engineering
Jose Lineros, PhD Clinical Assistant Professor, Department of Accounting, Accounting; G. Brint Ryan College of Business, at the University of North Texas

Financial Compliance vs Information Security: Making Choices and Communicating about it
Ray Longoria, Director Information Security, USAA

Friday, October 21 @ 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM | Room: BLB-090

UNT Cybersecurity Symposium:
https://unt-cybersecurity-symposium.yolasite.com/

Friday, October 28 @ 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM | Room: BLB-170

ITDS and UNT’s Cybersecurity Initiatives
Dan J. Kim, PhD, Professor of Information Technology and Decision Sciences, G. Brint Ryan College of Business, at the University of North Texas

How law firms deal with cybersecurity regulations
Joan Holman, CIO, Clark Hill

Concluding Remarks and invitation to becoming a Cyber Messenger
Dipak P Pravin, PhD Clinical Assistant Professor with the Department of Information Technology and Decision Sciences, G. Brint Ryan College of Business, at the University of North Texas