The MBA in Sport Entertainment Management is an intensive 18-month, full-time, cohort-style degree program. Classes are taught at the Frisco, TX UNT campus, and the MBA begins in the Fall semester of each academic year and ends the following Fall. Students accepted the program can expect strong industry interaction designed to enable graduates to become industry-ready and marketable. Taught by the world-class UNT Sport Entertainment faculty with the support of industry partners like the Dallas Cowboys, PGA America, and North Texas Speedway (to name a few), students will engage in a relevant, dynamic educational experience. Upon program completion, graduates will note that their knowledge of the unique business practices related to Sport Entertainment is broadened and they are prepared for back office positions and advancement in professional sports and related fields.
